If you have been looking for a book that will help you learn how to draw color then you have found the right book. This book is amazing for kids and adults. It is the best way to have fun together and at the same time to learn about the easier ways to draw. Is it hard for you to get your child's attention to draw and color? Have you tried everything? Have you bought even expensive sets and still nothing? It is not about the type of colors and pencils he will use. It is about the simplicity of the lesson. It needs to be fun and at the same time easy to follow. That is why the drawings in this book are accepted and loved by many children in the world. Actually, adults love them too. Every single step is favorite everyday items! Step-by-step projects and creative inspiration make it fun and easy. The Inspired Artist series invites art hobbyists and casual art enthusiasts to have fun learning basic art concepts, relaxing into the creative process to make art in a playful, contemporary style. With Draw Every Little Thing, the first book in this new series, you can learn to draw and paint your favorite everyday items. From learning to draw and paint plants, flowers, and bicycles to the neighborhood café and the contents of the kitchen cabinet, this contemporary drawing book demonstrates just how easy it is to render the world around you with little more than a pencil, paper, and paint. Following a brief introduction to the joys of simplistic drawing and painting, this aesthetically pleasing book familiarizes you with a range of drawing tools and materials, including graphite pencil, pen and ink, colored pencil, and gouache, before offering a quick overview of basic color theory. Each subsequent chapter is then

Draw the Flow Way "Create whatever causes a revolution in your heart." –Elizabeth Gilbert "I cannot rest, I must draw, however poor the result, and when I have a bad time come over me it is a stronger desire than ever." –Beatrix Potter "Drawing, painting, creating...it's like a muscle. You have to work on it every day."

–Sarah Walsh "Draw the art you want to see, start the business you want to run, play the music you want to hear, write the books you want to read, build the products you want to use—do the work you want to see done.” –Austin Kleon

“Drawing is the discipline by which I constantly rediscover the world. I have learned that what I have not drawn, I have never really seen, and that when I start drawing an ordinary thing, I realize how extraordinary it is, sheer miracle.”

–Frederick Frank “Have no fear of perfection, you’ll never reach it.”

–Salvador Dal í “Creativity is a way of living life, no matter what our vocation or how we earn our living.”

–Madeline L’Engle “I believe the most important single thing, beyond discipline and creativity, in any artistic work, is daring to dare.”

–Maya Angelou “I sometimes think that there is nothing so delightful as drawing.” –Vincent van Gogh In this innovative approach to drawing instruction, the illustrators from Flow magazine open up their tool kits, sharing secrets and techniques to teach the creatively curious how to draw. The lessons, 50 in all, curated from the best of Flow's two special drawing issues, show how to render the kinds of things we see every day: a bouquet of flowers, a beloved teacup, colorful mittens, the kitchen table, a bike, jam jars, a cat, an apple tree. Along the way we learn about color, materials, perspective, tools, and negative space. With its bound-in paper goodies, this book is also a canvas for artistic exploration—reminding
